W. S. Morgan, Sergt Signal Corps.

Mr. A. C. Schlesinger, now of Denver, is stopping in the city for a few days.

Mr. C. B. Ferrin, for the past four years trombone player in the opera house orchestra, has resigned.

Mr. Will Clark, now connected with Henshaw's European hotel in Denver, is visiting friends in the city.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Edward Trowbridge, of Leadville, and Miss Hortinius Joslin, of Manitou.

The Ladies Guild, of Grace church will meet at the residence of Miss Church 317 North Cascade avenue, this afternoon at three o'clock.

The Santa Fe route will offer a rate of $2.00 for the round trip to those who wish to attend the Kirmess festival at Denver, November 7th.

Alderman A. L. Lawton and wife arrived at home from the east the latter part of last week, having greatly enjoyed their month's vacation.

The photographic establishment at 122 South Tejon street will open for business this morning. Special inducements are offered in the business locals in another column.

The steam in the heater of the new bank block was turned on Sunday night, and will be kept going constantly from now on for the purpose of drying the plastering.

The following are the total registrations in five of the voting wards of the city at closing time last night: First ward, 294; second ward, 496, third ward, 377; fourth ward, 518, fifth ward, 307.

The regular meeting of Phœnix encampment No 21, I. O. O. F., will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at Odd Fellows' hall. There will be work in the second degree.

Mr. W. O. Shipler, of the postoffice force, leaves this evening for El Paso, Texas, having received a telegram from the postmaster at that place offering him the position of first assistant at a salary of $1700 a year.

The annual tax sale occurred yesterday morning in the county treasurer's office, and was the most largely attended sale ever held in the county. A number of parties from Denver were present. Treasurer McGlooney conducted the sale.

The firm of Conant & Newton, grocers of this city, has been dissolved and the business will hereafter be conducted by Mr. W. L. Conant under the firm name of Conant & Co. Attention is called to their dissolution notice and card in another column.

A missionary tea will be given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, in the parlors of the church. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged and a light supper will be served from 7 to 10 o'clock. A most enjoyable time is promised.

The oyster supper given by the members of G. A. R. Post No 22 in the post rooms last night, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind ever given in the city. Oysters and coffee were served, and an impromptu programme of speeches by the members gone through with. The "boys of '60" know how to have a good time, how to make their friends have a good time, and they do not do it by serving oyster soup with the oysters photographed in the milk. The members of the post acknowledge themselves indebted to Mr. W. F. McKeehan for a donation.

Owing to the inclement weather there was not so large an audience at the opera house last night as should have greeted Charlotte Thompson and her excellent company. Miss Thompson appeared in "Jane Eyre," and her excellent rendition of the character which has made her name famous was greeted by generous applause. Miss Thompson has been before the public many years and holds a high place in the profession. William Terriss as Lord Rochester was good, but owing to the haste to get through to catch the train, somewhat marred his most effective lines. Mr. Richard Valentine as Achille De Leon, a Frenchman, gave a very fine rendition of a difficult part. Mr. Valentine will always be remembered as a finished actor. Miss Amelia Watts as Mrs. Reed is quite at home in her part. The rest of the company are all good actors and added much to the enjoyment of the evening. The company is a strong one and the amusement loving people of Colorado Springs enjoyed a treat.
